

Citizens' Health Advisory Council – Health Care Capacity Project Update
November 2011

Recommendations:	Champions:	Update:	Time Frame:
Coordination Recommendations 1. Form a Regional Health Care Alliance A collaborative of high-level decision makers from key organizations that connect resources and guide projects through implementation.	ASH, Axis Health System, LPC Human Services, Citizen's Health Advisory Council (CHAC), MRMC, SJBHD, Durango School District 9-R, Primary care providers; Durango Network/La Plata County Medical Society, La Plata Dental Society Contact: Bob Juskevich, MD; Email: rejuskevich@gmail.com	Health Alliance of La Plata County now has quarterly meetings of the entire group, with working subgroups that meet on a more regular basis. The annual retreat in December will allow for a review of objectives given the FQHC was not funded and integrated health care access remains a need for LPC residents.	Quarterly meetings set for 2012 Ongoing
2. Create a Health Information Exchange (HIE) That creates a safe and secure electronic platform that enables providers and hospitals to share patient information to help improve care coordination and control cost.	MRMC, ASH, Axis Health, Durango Network, SWCO Area Health Education Center, SJBHD, other SW area hospitals and providers CHAC currently has an active HIE education group. Contact: Scott Wallace, QHN Email: swallace@qualityhealthnetwork.org	There are a number of groups now working on HIE. Quality Health Network (QHN) will serve as the HIE for western Colorado. QHN is currently working out details with CO Regional Health Information Organization (CORHIO) on the front range to assure patient health information from within Mercy/Centura is available to be shared locally. QHN, SWCOAHEC and the Durango Network continue to educate providers on Electronic Health Records, HIE and meaningful use.	Spring 2012
3. Create Community Health Care Teams That utilize public health skills (navigators, home visits) to enhance private practices and patient-centered quality care.	SJBHD, Pediatric Partners of SW, MRMC-HSC, La Plata County LPC Senior Center, SWCOAHEC, Rocky Mountain Health Plan Contact: Emily Burns, MD, Executive Director, SWCOAHEC Email: emily.burns@swcahec.org	Significant community and payer resources secured to provide womb to tomb integrated health care. A system for patient-centered medical (health) care home is being designed and built for future sustainability.	January 2012 Ongoing
Accessibility Recommendation 4. Plan and open a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) To provide a full range of services to patients regardless of insurance.	Axis Health System Contact: Bern Heath, Executive Director, Axis Health System Email: bheath@axishealthsystem.org	The FQHC was not funded by HRSA. Axis continues to explore many possibilities for an integrated health care clinic with other community partners in La Plata County. They hope that one of the 6 or 7 possibilities being explored will be successful.
